From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Tue, 4/14/2015 7:29:07 AM
Subject: In today's FT: US rocket group to â€˜halveâ€™ cost of launches, Cameron...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Tuesday April 14 2015

UK HOMEPAGE

US rocket group to ‘halve’ cost of launches

United Launch Alliance says Vulcan’s first flight will be in 2019

Cameron to expand Right to Buy

Tories look to Thatcher flagship policy to regain initiative from Miliband

Fed official warns of flash crash repeat

Simon Potter says auto trading and new rules could trigger volatility

VIDEO

Volkswagen power struggle escalates

Lex’s Richard Stovin-Bradford and Robert Armstrong discuss the latest leadership crisis at the German carmaker.

US HOMEPAGE

Rubio paints 2016 as generational choice

Cuban-American Republican aims to be first Hispanic occupant of the White House

Greece prepares debt default options

Athens to withhold €2.5bn due to IMF if no deal is reached

IBM signs digital health deal with Apple

Doctors, researchers and insurers can gain access to Apple Watch health data

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Russia unblocks Iran missile deliveries

Moscow defends move likely to irk other powers involving air-defence system for Tehran

Nokia nears bid for Alcatel-Lucent assets

Talks highlight return to growth after Finnish group's handset sale

Gazprom chief warns EU over pricing challenge

Miller says crackdown will trigger higher costs as Brussels starts antitrust case

ASIA HOMEPAGE

Fast Asia Open - Pause, reflect: is this nuts?

Citi shuffles ranks as Medina-Mora quits

Asia Pacific chief Stephen Bird to head group's global consumer bank

Nina Ricci heir convicted for tax fraud

First high-profile casualty of HSBC Swiss bank leaks

WORLD NEWS

Ontario joins cap-and-trade programme

Move may encourage others to join North America's largest emissions trading system

Buhari's APC wins Nigeria state elections

Gubernatorial polls reinforce president-elect's reform mandate as results underscore ethnic tensions

Rubio-Bush duel lights up sunshine state

Florida Republicans face a choice between two favourite sons

Are markets underplaying UK political risk?

Study says low wages cost US $153bn a year

More than half of all fast-food workers rely on public assistance

COMPANIES NEWS

Sony pushes into local films and TV shows

Sanford Panitch joins from Fox studio for tilt to international markets

Anti-graft drive grounds China jet sales

Capacity constraints have shattered hopes that country's fleet would triple in next five years

Robot chef creates a stir

Fast-growing sector is quickly moving from robo-vacuumsto autonomous kitchens

Corporate Germany baffled by VW chairman

Piëch's outburst against chief executive leaves leadership weakened

Change at the top comes with a cost

Research shows that even planned appointments of CEOs hit total shareholder returns

MARKETS

US and European stocks sag

China euphoria unchecked even as exports fall 15% in March

Emerging market stocks extend surge

Longest succession of gains for 12 years

Investors pile into inflation-linked bonds

QE triggers rush for inflation protection

ECB QE alchemy transforms junk bonds

BB rated debt now moves more in unison with investment grade BBB rated

Iron ore rallies on China inventory fall

Price rises $1.50 from low of $46.60 a tonne this month

COMMENT

Buying Trident would weaken UK defence

The Tories' commitment is a frivolous decision to waste billions on a symbol of strength

Too soon to put party back into politics

The campaign rhetoric is of post-austerity Britain — we are running the 2020 election in 2015

China will react if US weaponises trade

Do not pitch TPP as the economic counterpart to a military strategy, writes Michael Levi

World does not hear west's deaf prophets

Europe and the US have been convinced of their own truths for too long, writes Mark Mazower

Auntie Bai brings rule of law to China TV

Television star claims that 90% of her litigants change their behaviour as a result of her show

MANAGEMENT

Workarounds that let disabled flourish

With employers' backing and advances in technology, high-powered careers are possible

Tech to gauge performance can fall short

Productivity trackers are helpful but they cannot tell the whole story, writes Herminia Ibarra

Why lying is still taboo

White lies and exaggeration are commonplace; downright untruths are not

Rangoon Tea House, Myanmar

A bustling cafe that offers a taste of the old and new

Manage email | Forward this email

Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2015

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.
This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.
Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.